-DEADLY BOMB SET BY ANARCHISTS TO KILL LOUBE

Fuse Burning When Found at the Villa of France's ex-President.

LINKED WITH BIG PLOT.

Riotous Element Dominant Throughout Country Menaced by Revolution.

journal from La Montelimar, Departhis family are spending their Easte.

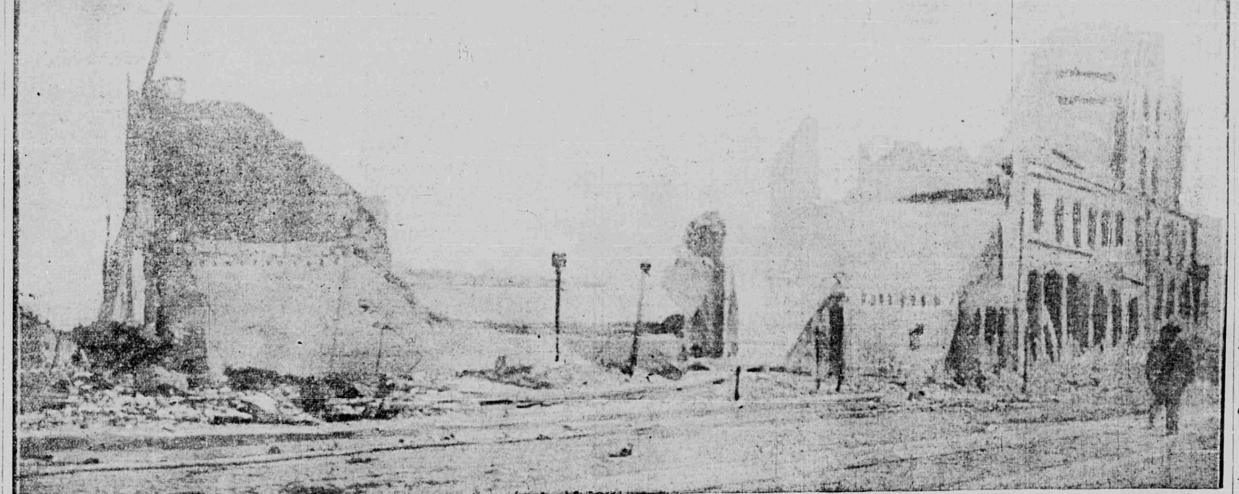

MRS, YOUNG TELLS

Widow of Man Slain in Cab Returns from San Fran-

Among the passengers on the Twer tieth Century Limited from the West to-day was Mrs. Caesar Young, the wife of the bookmaker, for the murder of whom Nan Patterson twice stood vrial. Mrs. Young was in San Fran-cisco at the time of the earthquake. "I was thrown from my bed," said Mrs. Young, "by the first shock. The

A VIEW OF PART OF MISSION STREET AFTER THE FIRE SWEPT IT. COPYRIGHT, 1906, BY O. F. BROWNING

FIRST OFFICIAL LIST OF DEAD IN SAN FRANCISCO

PAOLO. EN THOMAS.

OSENBERG (woman). HORDAN, FRANK. AKAMADA (Japanese). HIONL A., and wife.

HMUCHERT, BEACH
LESTLE. N. F.
LMPSON, CAROLINE
HERRY, TEMPERANCE,
TANELSE, WM. (baby),
TEEL, GEORGE,
SHERMAN, LILLIAN J.
SULLIVAN, D. T., fire
om injuries received.

CHERT, HENRY

oril 23.

VAN SLYCK, MARY S.

VAN SEICHT, FERDINAND.

VARD, JULIA.

VHALEN, ANNIE.

WEBSTER, ANNIE.

WEBSTER, ANNIE.

WEIR, JOHN.

INKE, PAUL.

Inknown men, sixteen.

Inknown children, six.

Inknown Children, six.

Inknown Chilnese, six.

Inknown, sex not known.

NEW YORK GIFTS

ORGE. L ROBERT L LIAM.

MARY. ENGEN, LOUIS S.

MRS. IDA O.

OHNION, MI OMSTON, WALTER NICHOLAS. SER. RUDOLPH J.

RAID SAFE OF

troller's office with the Brooklyh sever frauds.

Lawyer Miles, who was sentenced to a year in the pentientiary and fined $500 to Mational Aniline a con Monday. Is out under $1,000 ball pending application for a writ of reasonable doubt. He was in his private office to-day when the District-Attorney and his men arrived. Miles taled when he saw the platoon of police,

"What does this mean?" he asked excitedly.

"What does this meets a street of the street

SEEKS BAIL FOR COLONEL WHO

Mrs. Ward Withdraws Bluecoat Thought He Court of Appeals Sustains Charge Against H. D. Bryan.

Guard banquet he called on Mrs. Ward. Well dressed young man. He found in her apartment the photoenraged Col. Bryan He snatched it room the door was locked. the photo and also to restrain his locked when she went downstairs. wrath. This only incensed him the more and he struck at the young Miss Lauire is an athletic youn woman to drive her away.

to the extent of preferring a charge of 5,000 assault against you."

But when they reached the station house Mrs. Ward wanted to withdraw the charge. The detectives had searched to the Colonel, and found a 35-calibre re-500 volver in his pocket. He was then 500 locked up on a charge of carrying a convolver in his pocket. He was then 500 cealed weapon.

300 sergeant the name of H. D. Williams 300 and refused to consider the proposition of sending out for bail. "It would disgrace me forever," he Says He's Bingham's Friend.

The detectives questioned Mrs. Ward later in the night, and earned that their prisoner was Col. Bryan, a member of many clubs and an intimate friend of Poice Commissioner Bingham. He gave his address as No. 520 Columbus avenue.

When the case came up in the West Side Court to-day Mrs. Ward appeared with a lawyer, who undertook the defense of the Colonel. She asked that the prisoner we freet, as she had no charge to make against him. The charge of carrying a concealed weapon still stood, and the court held the retired army officer in $500 bail on that charge. the warrant. For a few intures Miles trade to dissuade this from opening the safe. The plant of the safe are the safe expert to work. After fifteen minutes the expert had the great from door open. Mr. Elder, who had core open the safe and to look over the papers, while Mr. Clark stood by. He removed more than twenty the book and half a dozen bunches of book and half a dozen bunches of many through.

Some things they're not fitted to do; Roy lack of a better idea. They long and to-day, through work at they personal matters were kept flowing. They long and to-day, through work at they have the safe all the day flowing the safe all the safe all the day flowing the safe all the safe all the day flowing the safe all the safe all

WOMEN SAT ON BURGLAR UNTIL POLICE ARRIVED

Was Easy and Fellow Escaped from Him.

cer, is a prisoner in a cell in the West young society woman, of Staten Island, Side Court, whence he was transferred had, single-handed, whipped a burglar tion, where he spent the night, as the she, assisted by her landlady, had over-

Frank Bedknap, at No. 199 Richmond

position of prominence and this fact table. But when she returned to be from its bracket and ran out of the the knob she heard noises as of som house. Mrs. Ward followed him into one moving inside. She remembered

Hit Her with Umbrella.

She persisted in her entreaties until the Colonel struck her with his unrelated and face. The colonel struck her with his unrelated the Mayor's San Francisco of $25,000. F. K. Sturgis, Secretary, sent his check for the amount direct to the door had broke in the opposite side of the street, saw the colonel struck for the amount direct to the door had broken. The man struck at the opposite side of the street, saw the assault and went to the young woman's assistance. They grabbed the Colonel Stairs, both of them fighting and she screamin with every breath. At the round floor Mrs. Belkinap and the driver of a laundry wagon, Louis Stairs, both of them fighting and she screamin with every breath. At the round floor Mrs. Belkinap and the driver of a laundry wagon, Louis Stairs, both of them fighting and she screamin with every breath. At the round floor Mrs. Belkinap and the Colonel. "Mind your own business," thundered the Colonel. "Mind your own business," thundered the Colonel. This served to stir the ire of the young wriggle. The two women bore him to the extent of preferring a charge of the stairs.

Went Through Window.

Went Through Window. None of the men neighbors were a home. The quiet street was deserted Lonzier came back breathless and called up the West Brighton police sta-tion. The sergeant at the station, recalled up the West Brighton police station. The sergeant at the station, refusing to grow excited over the situation, suggested that the man on the beat be found. It was nearly thirty minutes before the laundryman found him—Policeman Larkin.
All this time Mrs. Belknap and Miss
Laurie set on the whipped intruder.
They tried to hobble his ankles with a handkerchief, but he kicked loose. He eleaded with them to let him go, saving handkerchiet, but he had been pleaded with them to let him go, saying he was of good family and had been driven to crime by drink. Both women "It would disgrace me forever," he said, "if my friends knew of my predictament. I prefer to stay in prison a week rather than tell the public who I am."

Says He's Bingham's Friend.

The detectives questioned Mrs. Ward later in the night, and earned that their prisoner was Col. Bryan, a member of many clubs and an intimate friend of Poice Commissioner Bingham. He gave his address as No. 520 Columbus avenue.

When the case came up in the West Was good family and had been driven to crime by drink. Both women weet their said. But their prisoner was allowed to stand up. He was going through his pockets having out his spoils when suddenly he dived head dirst through a bay window, smashing the glass and falling upon the lawn. He got away by running. He was a tall, slender man with a brown mustache and blue eyes. His clothing was good and his language unimpeachable.

> druggists prints a formula in answer to a request "for a good cough syrup." Among other ingredients

it calls for six ounces alcohol,

one and a half

patent medicine.

Danger

drachms chloroform and seven and one-half grains morphine-Morphine enough to kill seven men. Without these Enough drugs Father John's medicine to kill cures grip, colds, all bronchial trou-7 men. bles. Prevents pneumonia. Not a

UPHOLDS LAW TAKING POWER FROM ALDERMEN

Side Court, whence he was transferred had, single-handed, whipped a burglar from the West Forty-seventh street station, where he spent the night, as the tion, where he spent the night, as the she, assisted by her landlady, had overit in the Board of Estimate and Ap-

The decision is handed down in the case of Wilcox, appellant, vs. Mayor and through Brooklyn. Queens and Richmond boroughs had long been held up. The bill was backed by the Pennsylvania road, which hoped to expedite its connecting road franchise. Mayor McClellan in refusing to approve the bill severely criticised the activity of the Pennsylvania Rajiroad attorneys.

Court of Appeals Sustains
Bill Cutting Off Right to Grant Franchises.

the franchise is still under cot sideration. Mayor McClellan Insisting upon greater concessions to the city than the railroad company is willing to grant.

When Alderman Timothy P. Sullivan, the power behind the Aldermanic fight against the new law, was seen he said:

"I am convinced the fight can be carried into the United States courts, and believe that such a course will be taken. Our future action largely rests on the judgment of Mr. Lafin Kellogg, of Kellogg & Rose, counsel for the Board of Aldermen."

IN PEASANT RIOTS.

eral of Voronezh has hastily left this city for the village of Diewitza, where, aristocratic quarter of As she went down to the proposed connecting railroad to suppressing peasant disorders.

At

50.00

each,

Values

$65.00 to $100.00.

Lord & Taylor

Will Continue

Their Exceptional Offering of Women's High Class

Fancy Tailored Gozens, consisting of the following:-

Rajah Silk Suits in fancy Eton effects, new Spring and Summer

Imported Voile Suits, exclusive models, entire suits made over taffeta, in delicate pastel shades and black.

Imported Wool Fabrics in checks stripes and mixtures, reproductions from imported models.

Novelty Silk Suits of taffeta, Tussah or check silks, in smart Eton styles.

This sale consists of about 150 Suits, all very high class and exclusive styles, and only one or two of a style, so that a purchaser can be assured of an individual garment, and at the price quoted it is positively the greatest offering of high class suits ever made.

Also An Offering of Women's Coats & Wraps, consisting of Chiffon Broadcloths, Silks, Pongees, Rajahs and Laces. These Garments are suitable for Street, Reception and Evening Wear. The original prices were $40.00 to $125.00; The Present Prices are $25.00 to $75.00.

Broadway and Twentieth St., Fifth Ave., Nineteenth St.

Embroidery Department.

Clearing Sale of Imported Waist Patterns, Robes, Flouncings and Medallions.

Waist Patterns, $3.50 to $29.50, formerly $5.00 to $45.00. Robes in Linen and Batiste, $19.50 & $29.50, formerly $30.00 to $60.00.

Flouncing,

$1.95 to $4.95 per yd. formerly $2.50 to $6.50 yd. Medallions, 95c.,$1.50 &$1.95 yd. formerly $1.25 to $4.95 yd.

Lord & Taylor Broadway and Twentieth Streets

Coward Shoe

Young Men's Shoes. COWARD OXFORDS are made insnappy styles that fit snugly at the heel and over the instep, smoothly about the ankles, and are built right in every way, for comfort and service. In all leathers and sizes.

SOLD NOWHERE ELSE.

JAMES S. COWARD. 268-274 Greenwich St., N. Y. (NEAR WARREN STREET.

Mail Orders Filled. Send for Catalogue. HOMES FURNISHED COMPLETE. NO DEPOSITS REQUIRED.

YOUTH RRR HEALTH RRR BEAUTY

DOES DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION HOTHER YOU! Do you know what it is to enjoy a good pure meal? Even if you feel like it, dare on satisfy your desire? Digestion is one of the most complex func-

Monday Morning Wonders.

Sunday World Wants Work